— In Memoriam —

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."

1981 Spiritual Retreat

The Seventy-first Session (since the consolidation with the Fire Baptized Church in 1911) and the Fourth Spiritual Retreat of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church met in Falcon, North Carolina on June 19, 1981 with General Superintendent Bishop J. Floyd Williams presiding. The conference was opened by Conference Superintendent Reverend J. Doner Lee at 9:00 A. M. followed by the singing of the hymn "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" which was led by Reverend Roland Harrell and accompanied by Reverend Lou Spencer at the piano. Reverend W. Eddie Morris led the conference in prayer.

Superintendent Lee presented the presiding officer after which the Conference Secretary Reverend Raymond Potter called the roll of the ordained ministers, missionaries, licensed ministers, and superannuated ministers. Those present answered to their names. Official registration was by enrollment cards.

By motion the bar of the conference was established across the Auditorium and back to the first aisle after which the chairman called all officials, ministers, and duly elected delegates to within its boundaries.

By motion visiting ministers were granted a seat and voice in the conference. Those seated were Reverends James R. Pennington, Kenneth Benson, Webster Oliver, and Dennis Evans.

The chairman recognized Reverend Roland Harrell to read the report of the Committee on Examination. By motion the report was adopted.

The chairman presented Conference Superintendent Reverend J. Doner Lee who gave his report and the State of the Conference Report. By motion these were adopted with a rising vote of thanks.

The chairman recognized Reverend Clayton Guthrie who read the report of the Committee on Memoirs. The conference stood for a moment of silent meditation after which Bishop J. Floyd Williams led in prayer.

By motion a copy of the Memoirs Committee Report will be sent to the families of those ministers honored and remembered in the report.

The chairman presented Reverend Sam L. Whichard who read the Report of the Committee on Appreciation. By motion the report was adopted by a rising vote of thanks.

The following were presented by the chairman to speak on behalf of their respective ministries: Dr. Kenneth Benson, Holmes College of the Bible; Reverend Wiley T. Clark, The General Sunday School Department; Reverend James Pennington, General Coordinator at General Headquarters; and Reverend Raymond Potter, World Missions Department.

By motion the election of two members to the Examining Committee would be by nomination and election from the floor of the conference. Reverends Thad White and Linwood Conner were elected.

The chairman recognized Reverend C. L. Turpin who addressed the conference on behalf of Falcon Children's Home.

At this juncture of the business of the conference the ordination service was begun with the singing of the hymn "Blessed Assurance." Each new minister was charged by Bishop J. Floyd Williams and received their credentials. Those ministers who were to receive ordination were duly ordained by Bishop Williams and the Conference Board and granted their ordination credentials.

By common consent Bishop Williams was given an expression of thanks for presiding over the conference after which the session adjourned at 12:36 P.M.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT—1981

Mr. Chairman and Conference Members:

I greet you in the wonderful name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. It gives me great pleasure to report today that my experience with the Lord is up to date. I am Saved, Sanctified, Baptized with the Holy Ghost and fire and enjoying the great blessings of the Lord. I still believe, teach, preach, and try to daily live up to the standards and cardinal doctrines of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, and above all follow God's Word. My experience with the Lord grows sweeter and dearer to me each day.

This year has been a very busy one for me. I have endeavored to fill the place God has given me to serve to the best of my ability. During a year there are many requirements and duties for this office. I have conducted two rounds of District Conferences, managed the Falcon and Piney Grove Camp Meetings, served as Editor of the Evangel, Chairman of Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund and conference boards. I have chaired Conference Board meetings each month, traveled across the conference for various reasons; I have preached for revivals and special services, homecomings, dedications, regular services, ground breakings, note burnings, organizing churches, funerals, met with pastors, delegations, church bodies, and wherever I was called.

May I express appreciation to the Conference Board for their loyal support of the Conference, General Church, and the many things that have been brought before us. Each one has conscientiously and prayerfully served this conference and church well. To the Christian Education Director, Evangelism Director, Auxiliary President, World Missions Director and their boards and committees for their faithful support and dedicated labors to help make this another good year of continued progress.

As a member of the General Executive Board: It was my privilege to serve with Bishop J. Floyd Williams for eight months, (January through August); Bishop Leon Stewart for four months (September through December); and other members of the board. I served as Chairman of the General Board of Education and Representative of the Eastern Zone. I attended all regular Executive Board meetings, General Board of Administration meetings and several special sessions with sister denominations. In each case I have represented this Conference and denomination conscientiously and to the best of my ability.

This year 1981 has been a good year. There has been and are still many strange doctrines and unscriptural untruths being taught, but there is the genuine. There is a way in the way, that is called the way of Holiness. It is just as real as it has ever been. And there are those who still walk therein. In fact, I believe many are turning back and preaching the gospel, possibly more so than in recent years. Thank God for the moving of His Spirit.

THE STATE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

December 31, 1981

The state of the North Carolina Conference for the year 1981 is very good. During the year we have had many activities that demanded our time: we have had conference, camp meetings, youth camps and varied meetings in the conference along with the General Conference in Oklahoma City. All these takes time, prayer and finance. Yet! this conference has made a steady gain. The local minister and church is to be commended for your loyalty and stewardship and faithfulness through such a busy year. We must never forget that the local congregation, small or large, are the ones who hold the fort and join hands to promote and support this great church.

Through everyone's cooperation we have shown an increase in church membership. We closed the year 1980 with 15,537 and this year with 15,841. An increase of 524; not what we would like to have acquired, but we have gone forward. In the number of souls Saved, Sanctified, and Baptized with the Holy Ghost we show gains—and I feel sure these statistics aren't an actual account. For many experiences have been around our altars and in homes this year that were not counted.

We have been and are presently in a recession in our nation. However, God's people have continued to support their church. Many churches pay across the board to both Conference and General Church and then give sacrificially to World Missions, Education, Benevolence, and all other church needs. You have done it again this year, Harvest Train, Feast of Ingathering, Education Emphasis, Missions have all shown an increase. Thank God for helping us to continue doing our part to build His kingdom. And thank you for obeying Him. We are facing a new year—with a commission to win the lost. Let us join forces, unite our prayers and efforts and not only plan, but Do, in 1982.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

We express appreciation to Rev. Bobby Collins, Christian Education Director and his board for their continued efforts in our Sunday School and Lifeliners. This department covers a mammoth area through the year. There are Youth Camps, Rallies, Bible Quiz, Teen Talent, Candy Sales (for scholarships) AFC-Camp-O-Ree, Book Store sales and many other efforts. Brother Collins is a very dedicated minister with a great love for his church and conference. Through his leadership we continue to march forward.

EVANGELISM DEPARTMENT

During the last Quadrennial Conference we appointed Rev. L. B. Collins as Conference Evangelism Director. Through his dedicated leadership we have made great strides in Evangelism. Many of our churches are still small in membership and need help. Through this department we have assisted pastors through financial aid, buildings, land, revivals, special services, labors and much prayer. It is rewarding to see them take new life and begin to grow, or to organize a new church and see dedicated people unite and build.

In the nine districts we have units made up of District Director, Secretary, Treasurer and one lay member. Usually each department will have a church or effort they support. The District Director along with Rev. Collins make up his board. They have worked hard and their labors speak for themselves. Thanks for a job well done.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

When we approach the Woman's Auxiliary we hardly know where to begin or stop; for, they cover so many phases of our church. Mrs. Faye Leggett, our W. A. President, and the Auxiliary Board are always doing and promoting something in the church: Harvest Train, Feast of Ingathering, Education, local and conference projects. Just name it! You can see their hand in many places. I have always personally enjoyed working with them and promoting their efforts. Thanks again ladies for new goals, set and broken.

OTHER AREAS OF PROGRESS

Each department has already been mentioned and increases noted. However, it is noteworthy to mention our World Missions annual and monthly giving by each church. Rev. Raymond Potter, our mission director, has done a good job keeping it before us. We are continuing to make increase in our overall giving. All other emphasis: Education, Harvest Train, etc. are all showing an annual increase. All that has been mentioned has been great. But the greatest is, that we are waking up to what our commission as a minister and church really is. And it is on that promise that I challenge each MINISTER: "Preach the word—be instant in season, and out of season, reprove, rebuke, exhort with long suffering and doctrine, for the time will come (has come) when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lust shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears. And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy minister." II Timothy 4:2-5.

GRATITUDE TO GOD

To accomplish our goals this year it has taken everyone working together. But, to accomplish anything or make an increase, it takes the power and leadership of God, "TO HIM WE GIVE THE PRAISE."

NORTH CAROLINA QUADRENNIAL STATISTICAL REPORTJanuary 1, 1978 - December 31, 1981

The Quadrennial Report for the North Carolina Conference from January 1, 1978 to December 31, 1981 is very good. God has blessed in each department. In each annual conference, in each district conference, in all ministerial letters and occasions that I have had the privilege to speak to our ministers and churches—I have endeavored, as your Conference Superintendent to challenge each; to let us together join hands, heart and spirit and help build the Kingdom of God. During this period there has been as much or more controversial doctrines taught, taped, written, televised, preached and demonstrated, possibly than any previous four year period in our history. It has been a period of last day prophecy when as Paul stated: "The time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lust shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." II Timothy 4:3-4. There has been a continuous flow of such materials that could have and possibly have been entertained, considered, or adopted by a few. But praise God: There is a mighty host, a mighty fortress, that is holding the fort and standing firm on the foundation of Bible Holiness and Pentecost. It still has its effect. It is still powerful. When preached under the anointing; this gospel continues to bring Holy Ghost conviction on sinners. It continues to reveal the need for Sanctification and the Baptism of the Holy Ghost. And God honors those who stand firm on His Word. This is revealed in our Quadrennial Report. God has richly blessed your efforts and given us one of the most fruitful four year periods yet.

God has given us a great Quadrennium. Listed, are only the number of experiences accounted for. I know there were many others won to the Lord through youth camps, W. A. meetings, Home Cell Meetings, hospitals, sick rooms, and personal witnessing. "Thank you for doing your part." And I thank God for allowing me to be a part and to serve such a great people. I feel I have served you this Quadrennium in God's will. And that I presently serve Him and this conference in His highest will for my life."

APPRECIATION COMMITTEE REPORT

God has blessed the Pentecostal Holiness Church with some truly Good Ministers of Jesus Christ. Every year there are those that are superannuated from the active ministry. At this point in their lives they enter a new phase of ministry. The desire of these men who have given their lives to the ministry of our church and the Lord is to continue to preach God's Word and serve as the opportunity affords itself. We can say what Paul said of John Mark, these men are profitable to us for the ministry.

REVEREND GEORGE A. CASPER

He was a gentleman preacher; a man that through the years stuck to the Word of God. Brother George was a gentle, kind and unpretentious man that blessed those that were privileged to hear his sincere preaching of the gospel. He was never given to tangents nor did he turn aside from the preaching of Christ and Him crucified. For over thirty years it was my privilege to know and work with Brother George A. Casper. He is truly a good minister of Christ.

Rev. Casper joined the N. C. Conference in August, 1943 and retired in August, 1980.

REVEREND L. C. ORMAND

Brother Ormand is a man of strong personal convictions. He is known for his straightforward preaching of the Word of God. His love for God and the Pentecostal Holiness Church made Him appreciated by those he served in our conference. We shall always respect his heartfelt sincerity.

Rev. Ormand joined the N. C. Conference in 1956 and retired in 1980.

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

In the year 1946, about the same time, two young men accepted the call of God upon their lives and entered the gospel ministry. Somewhere close to the same time, God in His infinite wisdom, said to them both, "Your task is completed, your work is done, your coronation day has arrived, come on home."

We pause during this conference in honor and memory of these two men.

REVEREND H. WILLIARD WATSON

The Rev. H. Williard Watson was born September 10, 1915 and departed this life November 14, 1980, making his pilgrimage on this earth a full 65 years. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Saviour at 13 years of age in the Lamms Grove Pentecostal Holiness Church during the ministry of Rev. W. E. Morris.

Following a deep commitment to God and feeling a call to the ministry he attended the Falcon Holiness School and was licensed to preach in the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, August 31, 1946. His pastorates over a period of 32 years include: Farmville, Shelmerdine, Hopewell, St. Paul, Harkers Island, Scotland Neck, Roper, Mt. Olive (Pembroke), Abbottsburg, and Hobgood. During his pastorate of 12 years at Hobgood, he led the congregation in the erection of a new church plant.

During his tenure at Pembroke he furthered his education and received a degree that allowed him to teach in the public schools for several years in addition to his duties as pastor. Upon his retirement from the public schools, he was honored with an engraved plaque from his fellow staff members for loyal and efficient service.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, and one daughter. He is remembered by his conference as a dedicated minister of the gospel. His body was laid to rest in the quietness of the Memorial Park, but his spirit rests with the Lord Jesus and "the spirits of just men made perfect" in that land of eternal bliss.

REVEREND ROBERT H. BRAFFORD

The Rev. R. H. Brafford accepted Jesus Christ as his Saviour, July 22, 1940 in the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Wilson, N. C. He received Mission Worker's license in November, 1944 and was assigned as supply pastor of Thompson Chapel, where he served for two years. In 1946, having accepted the call to preach, he was licensed by the N. C. Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. He served as pastor of Moore's Chapel, Thompson Chapel, Harkers Island, Vanceboro, Sanford, Wilmington Fourth Street, Winter Park, Harkers Island a second time, Wilson First, St. Paul, and Thunder Swamp. He retired because of ill health in 1976, but served Sharon for two years after his retirement with his wife as Associate Pastor. He also served as an area Evangelist for two years and was effective as an evangelist throughout his ministry.

When God needed a man in the land of Egypt in whom the Spirit of God dwelt, he found him in the person of Joseph, for Pharaoh said, "Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the spirit of God is?" When he needed someone to conquer the Midianites, He clothed Gideon with the Spirit of the Lord. When he needed someone to overcome the Philistines, the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon Samson. When he needed a preacher on the Day of Pentecost, He found him in a bold fisherman named Peter, freshly baptized with the Holy Ghost. When he needed a man to declare the full gospel to his generation; the message of salvation, sanctification, and the Baptism of the Holy Ghost, He looked down in the hills of Chatham County and found him in the person of Brother Brafford. He poured in His grace, clothed him with salvation, and sent him forth in the power and demonstration of the Spirit, to declare the message of God. When he preached, it was apparent that here was a man in whom the Spirit of God dwelt. The message of God and the Spirit of God flowed through him. Sinners came to the altar and Christians were revived.

He is survived by his wife, one daughter, and four sons, one who follows his father's footsteps in the ministry. He was a good man, a good husband, a good father, a good pastor, a good preacher of the gospel. His work, his ministry lives on.

In a minister's luncheon during Camp Meeting of 1980, he was weak and felt he must go. He was asked if he would like to say something before he left. He was helped to stand, and given support. Trembling, he said: "Even though I am weak in my body, and buffeted by the storms of life, I have not lost my course, I am still aboard the old ship. Like Paul, I have heard His voice saying; Be of good cheer, fear not, for there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am and whom I serve. Wherefore brethren, be of good cheer, for I believe God, that He will see me through." He said, "This may be my last luncheon with you here, but stay on board the old ship, we will land safe after awhile."

* * * * *

When Jesus Christ finished the plan of redemption, when the message was flashed from Calvary, "It is finished"—Royal decree had declared, a man will be used to tell this story, a man will be the instrument for the salvation of his fellow man. These two men answered that call and we ask this entire conference body to stand for a moment of silent prayer in their memory.

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

It is Paul the great Apostle whose words we often quote and whose exhortations we endeavor to abide by. During the period of his life when he was awaiting his own death, we can sense an awareness of Christian triumph! In living he was both a victim and victor; in dying, he again became a victim, but what a victorious death. This was proven by his own words, for Paul said, "I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith."

Today our memories reflect upon the lives of saintly Christian women who by their living set inspirational examples, and in dying left us a Godly heritage. Those W.A. members who made an exit from this life during the year, lived and died victoriously, as did Paul. They are:

Ebenezer W.A. _____	Mrs. Elma Cooper
Evangel W.A. _____	Mrs. Hilda Wheeler
Goshen W.A. _____	Mrs. Emma Marshburn
Hobucken W.A. _____	Mrs. Mollie J. Lupton
Tarboro First W.A. _____	Mrs. Millie Stancil
	Mrs. Lucille Staton
First Pentecostal Holiness Church of Goldsboro W.A. _____	Mrs. Mary King
	Mrs. Mary Barwick
Trinity W.A. _____	Miss Reba Autry
Vanceboro W.A. _____	Mrs. Carrie L. Kite
	Mrs. Rosa Fulcher
Greenville W.A. _____	Mrs. Bessie Cannon

Each one echoed those sincere words: "I have fought a good fight. I too have finished my course, yes I kept the faith!" What is the reward for such a life? A CROWN (light crown). A CROWN OF RIGHTEOUSNESS, that the Lord Himself will give. He will be crowned King of kings and Lord of lords, therefore, He will reward with crowns of righteousness!

To the families and friends of these departed ladies, this convention extends our heartfelt sympathy and prayers. We accept their challenge to fight good fights, to win the battles and the race that is ours while we yet remain here. Now, with great appreciation and in loving memory let us join together and sing the chorus, WHEN THE BATTLE IS OVER WE SHALL WEAR A CROWN. Let us pray: Oh Lord, give us understanding hearts, make us content to trust your wisdom, and in everything may we give you praise. Amen.

Respectfully: Mrs. Leon (Mary Belle) Johnson, Chairman.

N.C. W.A. PRESIDENT'S REPORT

July, 1980 - June, 1981

Personal:

This past year has been a very busy one; and since I was entering into new responsibilities, it has been a challenging year. But the Lord has blessed me with a keen sense of His presence and power, for which I am truly thankful today.

It has been a privilege to serve the Lord through the North Carolina Woman's Auxiliary this year. I have thoroughly enjoyed getting to know so many wonderful women across this conference, and I praise the Lord for all of the women of the Conference W.A. and for the great job that you are doing for God in your families, your churches, and your communities.

During the year I presented workshops at the District Fellowship Conferences, attended the Harvest Train for Falcon Children's Home, participated in the President's Council of the General W.A., and represented the Conference W.A. at the Feast of Ingathering for Holmes and Emmanuel. In May I attended a President's meeting at Emmanuel College concerning the Feast of Ingathering.

It was a pleasure to visit a number of the Auxiliaries during the year. I was in seven of the churches for W.A. Day, and I attended some of the local meetings and participated in District W.A. meetings. Included in the speaking engagements was Woman's Auxiliary Retreat and the P.F.N.A. Day of Prayer.

It has been a very rewarding year, and I am thankful to God for His blessings upon His work.

I am looking forward to working with you in the coming year, as we all work together for the kingdom of God.

Local Auxiliaries:

I have found in visiting the local Auxiliaries a great enthusiasm for the W.A. Work. I have been impressed with the unity and love which I have observed. God is certainly using our women to bless others. God bless each of you and give to you the greatest year ever.

Missions (Christmas)		6,724.39

Highlights of Conference Year:

The Ladies of the North Carolina Conference have distinguished themselves again this year by giving the largest offering in the Feast of ingathering at both Emmanuel and Holmes. A total of $23,080.00 was given to the schools. Thank you ladies for a job well done, and let's stay Number 1 in our giving to the colleges.

Our giving to the Harvest Train for Falcon Children's Home showed a healthy increase, and with inflation, as it is, we will need to have a good increase for this year.

The Retreat in March at the Holiday Inn in Raleigh was well attended, and there was a wonderful spirit throughout the retreat.

Over 400 girls attended our Annual G.A. Retreat in Falcon, and I believe it was one of our best yet. Mrs. Beverly Barts is doing a fine job in her first year as our Conference G.A. Director.

Official W. A. Visits:

A total of seventy-two visits have been made this year by the Conference W.A. Board. Twenty-two of the visits were made by the president, and fifty were made by Board Members, District Directors and the G.A. Director.

—Mrs. James Leggett, President; North Carolina W.A.
